

“Oldies & Woodies”

June 2018

The Spring Fling came with an added attraction

The Chapter's Spring Fling was celebrated at LaFamilia Restaurant in Chautauqua Institution. In addition to the prime rib carving station and the outstanding carrot cake, we were entertained with three solos from the “Singing Chef”—a contemporary song, an opera rendition, as well as a closing rendition of Perfect by Ed Sheeran. Thanks goes to Doug Cornelius for organizing a great meal and a great night.

CLTT News—

CLTT Website— CLTT-ACBS.org

If you haven't registered for the Boat Show, then you haven't experienced our newly revised website. Yep, it is up and running with a reformatted and redesigned presentation. It's pretty cool. All thanks to Charles Pringle.

CLTT Dock

The CLTT Dock is open for business. The dock was reconfigured, a couple of sections added, in addition to new hardware and spring poles. It is ready for use. All it takes is a crisp $100 bill. Space allocation will be made on a first come basis.

Send your check to: CLTT, PO Box 1, Celeron, NY 14720.

Upcoming CLTT Events

Are you ready for a picnic? Mark the date: Saturday, June 16 at 6:00pm. We will be gathering at the Power Boat Club for dogs and burgers. Come by land or come by water. As with all our dining events, we will need a count of who's coming. Please drop an email to Rick Couchenour at rcoke13@gmail.com by June 10th. Get your reservations in!

Next up: July 8th “Display your craft” at The Lawson Center docks. This provides an opportunity to show off your craft. CLTT is doing this in conjunction with TLC as a way to foster interest in antique and classic boats——and just maybe expand our chapter membership.

Words from our Boat Show Chair, Diana Hopfinger:

_____ The Boat Show Committee is in high gear making plans to be ready for a great show on July 14. The registration package for this year’s participants is available on our CLTT website at CLTT-ACBS.org. Pat Charest is our Registration Chair. As in the past years, if you register by June 29, you will NOT pay a surcharge for late registration. So save your money and register early.

Backed by popular demand, we will sail into the sunset on Friday evening for an after-dinner cruise aboard the Summer Wind. If you’ve registered for the show, you can pick up your welcome packet when you board.

We have a fun-filled day planned on Saturday with a seminar at The Lawson Center given by our very own Andy Robinson. Andy will present the ongoing restoration of a homemade Hacker Craft. Bill Reynolds will be leading a team of future skippers and mates for our Youth Judging Program in the afternoon.Carolynn Wesp is giving the Ship Store a makeover with new items for sale that you'll love. Anne Morris is off to a great start with the Basket Auction with a variety of baskets already promised by members who attended the Spring Fling. David Wesp will be in charge of setting up the Land Displays, Field of Dreams, and vendors. We have a few new vendors lined up this year, as well as some of our returning favorites.

The basket auction is one of our big money-makers and we need your donations. Guys, please be sure to share this newsletter with your lovely lady and ask her to share her email with Anne Morris so she can keep in touch.

Doug Cornelius needs your immediate help to get advertising and sponsors for our show. We all know and love our favorite local business owners who provide great goods and services. What better way to promote them than to ask them to sponsor an ad that will be featured in our show program? Call Doug for details.

I am happy to announce that Bob Tannehill is the winner of our poster contest! Bob submitted a photo of his grandfather's 1940 Chris Craft Deluxe Utility which was purchased new from Dave Lawson Sr. The vintage photo was taken in front of the family cottage on Warner Bay. A big THANK YOU to everyone who submitted their photos.

Remember, one of our main goals for this show is to have fun and that means we don't over-burden our members, especially during the show itself. THANK YOU to everyone who attended the Spring Fling for identifying where you will be volunteering at the show. We are still looking for volunteers at the docks, land displays, Ship Store, basket auction, and info tent. I'm asking each of you to sign on for at least one two-hour shift. I will be calling to schedule you to sign up if you haven't already. Every bit you do helps and is appreciated. I look forward to seeing everyone at our picnic on June 16!
